FRIDAY 19TH MARCH 2010

GROUP ONE NIGHT AT TABCORP PARK MENANGLE IS APRIL 23

NO LESS THAN FOUR GROUP ONE RACES WILL BE CONDUCTED AT TABCORP PARK MENANGLE ON FRIDAY, APRIL 23 UNDER LIGHTS AT THE STATE-OF-THE-ART COMPLEX.

Headlining the evening could well be the $100,000 Christian Cullen NSW Derby, which will see some of the country's best three-year-olds do battle over 2300 metres.

Some fantastic horses have won the race in recent years, including the brilliant Captain Joy last season at Tabcorp Park Menangle.

Not to be overshadowed, the $100,000 Cordina Chickens Ladyship Mile is sure to be a keenly contested affair, as some of the best mares in Australia do battle for supremacy over the 1609 metres.

The Grand Circuit performers will also have their moment in the sun with the third running of the $100,000 Len Smith Mile. Can this year's winner break the Australasian record, held by Monkey King, of 1:50.8 at Menangle?

It carries the most prizemoney of any race on the night, and the $300,000 Australian Pacing Gold 2YO Fillies Final could also provide the most fireworks!

Some of the finest up-and-coming young pacing talent in the fairer sex category will do battle to add their names to an Honour Roll that includes Kept For Pleasure, Lady Waratah, White Thunder and Lombo La Fe Fe.

While it isn't a Group One, the time-honoured $25,000 Watpac Carousel will also be part of the huge program on Group One Night at Tabcorp Park Menangle.

This race is traditionally won by a rising star in the making, so the competition for spots in the final, via heats, will be very competitive.

Heats of the Derby, APG for fillies and Carousel will be conducted on the previous Tuesday (April 26), which in itself will be a cracker-jack meeting.
